Rolling the Dice on Friendship: How the AHEPA Derby Brought Residents Together for Fun and Connection Thanks to Walmart Foundation

Thanks to a generous donation from the Walmart Foundation to our three AHEPA 232 Apartments communities in Indianapolis, we were able to host an exciting event with the goal of preventing social isolation. Many older Americans face challenges when it comes to meeting new people and engaging in social activities. Events like the AHEPA Derby create opportunities for connection in a fun and welcoming environment. With a delicious meal, interactive activities, and engaging races, the event brought residents together for a memorable experience!

Benefits of Staying Active in Senior Living

In our communities, staying active is seamlessly integrated into daily life, because we understand that part of aging is learning to prioritize wellness, connection and joy. Physical movement and social engagement go hand in hand when it comes to promoting better health, mental sharpness and emotional resilience. Whether it's walking, gardening or another hobby, we know that everyday activity, at any age, leads to a richer, more fulfilling life.
